TEACHING AND LEARNING

Teacher Feedback to Improve Pupil Learning

Effective teacher feedback is one of the most cost-effective and impactful pedagogical strategies that we can employ in our classrooms. This session will focus on some key takeaways from the October 2021 EEF Guidance Report along with some practical strategies to implement within classrooms. Aimed at teachers and teaching assistants who work in the primary or secondary phase and across a range of subjects and possibly leaders with responsibility for teaching and learning, we hope to share examples of good practice with a particular focus on developing a workload-friendly approach to marking and feedback.

Suitable for: Teachers and Teaching Assistants (primary and secondary), Leaders

Facilitators: Ruth Kyle (John Clifford), Lisa Rockley (Alderman White)

Time: 16:00 - 17:00

SEND

Attachment

This session will explore Attachment. Asking what is it? What the causes might be? What it might look like in the classroom, and in school, and What can we do.

Suitable for: Teachers and Teaching Assistants

Facilitator: Matt Joyce (Foxwood Academy)
